OUR LADY'S BIRTHDAY - SEPTEMBER 8TH

Next weekend we celebrate the Birthday of our Lady.

One way we celebrate is the annual pilgrimage to Cleator next Sunday; details in this bulletin.

This year we also have a Diocesan pilgrimage to Walsingham led by Bishop Paul.

Walsingham in North Norfolk has for a thousand years been called England's Nazareth and is part of the international network of shrines to Our Lady with its tiny Basilica, the "slipper chapel" and its massive, ruined Priory where the Holy house once stood.

The Walsingham Association was once strong in Carlisle and it's a delight that a coach will be going to the shrine from Carlisle this week.

I'm delighted not to be flying to France, and with the simpler food on this domestic pilgrimage. I hope to see you in Cleator next Sunday. Fr. Anthony
